ORDER:

In his report dated the 23rd November 1949, the Special Officer for Contingencies has made certain recommendations with a view to effect economy in the contingenet expenditure incurred in the office of the Surgeon-General, Madras. The Government have considered these recommendations together with the remarks of the Surgeon-General thereon and they pass the following orders:

(1) TELEPHONE CHARGES: The Government accept the recommendation of the Special Officer that the telephone extension to Fire Service and that the internal extension at the residence of the Surgeon-General may be removed and that the separate line for the Personal Assistant to the Surgeon-General may be abolished. The Personal Assistant will, however be given an extension from the office main file.

(2) ATTENDER BOY: The post of attender boy paid from the contingencies should be abolished forthwith.

(3) DAY WATCHMAN: The Government agree with the Special Officer that the post of the Day Watchman should be retrenched at once.

(4) TOUR CHARGES: The economies suggested by the Special Officer should be given effect to.

(5) PETTY COOLY CHARGES, M.O. CHARGES AND CONVEYANCE CHARGES: The instructions given by the Special Officer in regard to the above items should be adhered to.

2. The Surgeon-General is requested to furnish to Government in due course information regarding the savings in expenditure that will accrue on account of the orders passed on the recommendations of the Special Officer.
